SPECIAL TRAIN TO GO TO BIG FIGHT

Salt Lake, Aug. 22.—The Denver & Rio Grande announced yesterday that for the benefit of the fight fans in Nevada, and Utah and western Colorado, a special train will be run from Salt Lake to Colorado Springs for the Charley White-Fredie Welsh go for the lightweight championship of the world. The time of the train leaving here has not been decided upon by the railroad officials, but it was announced that the train would arrive in Colorado Springs on the morning of the encounter and proceed to Denver, where the excursionists will be given a day of sightseeing. This is the first time a special train has been run to a fight in the western states since the Jeffries-Johnson contest at Reno in 1910. It was said yesterday by Denver & Rio Grande officials that the train was run upon the request of fight fans in Utah who did not care to take regular trains and who desired low return trip rates to the Colorado Springs bout.

Dear Boss —
Last night while I was driving home the strangest thing happened to me — a bug flew
right in my ear —

— first I tried to get it out with a match
but the more I poked
the farther in he went. Tell I could feel him flapping
on my train.

— and Boss he sounded
more like a airship or a big bee-rohive kind — than a bug and I got scared and jumped out of the car and started to run —

FLAP
FLAP

— and I told a
farm house
about my bug — and he said he couldnt
help me much
except to tell me that he knew a lady once who had the same trouble —

And she spent $10,000 —
trying to get it out — then went crazy and died — When the bug heard him talking
he flew out of
